SONNET.—THE BIBLE.

O Book of books ! though skepticism flout
Thy sacred origin, thy worth decry ;
Though transcendental folly give the lie
To what thou teachest ; though the critic doubt
This fact, that miracle, and raise a shout
Of triumph o'er each incongruity,
He in thy pages may perchance espy ;
As in his strength th' effulgent sun shines out,
Hiding innumerable stars, so dost thou shine
With heavenly light, all human works excelling.
Thy oracles are holy and divine,
Of free salvation, through a Saviour, telling :
All truth, all excellence, dost thou enshrine—
The mists of sin and ignorance dispelling.

WM. LLOYD GARRISON.
